THE CHINA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.
Report for presentation to the shareholders at the tenth Ordinary Meeting, to be held at the Company's offices, at half past two o'clock, p.m., on Monday, the 24th February:—

The Directors have now the pleasure to present a Statement of the Company's Accounts made up to the 31st December, 1878.

The Balance at the credit of Working Account, 1877, as per last report was..... $145,719.72
From this has to be deducted the Dividend, voted by the Meeting of 15th February, 1878, at $12 per Share on 4,000 Shares..... 48,000.00

The Losses and claims accruing to 1877, but paid in 1878, amount to..... 9,808.25
Balance..... $ 89,410.47

The customary Bonus of 10 per cent. to contributing Shareholders will absorb $25,933.12, leaving a surplus of profit of $62,507.35, which, in view of the unusually heavy losses incurred in 1878, the Directors propose to carry forward to that year.

1878.
The earnings of this year show the very satisfactory increase of $15,810 over the previous one, but unfortunately the losses have been numerous and large, amounting in the aggregate to $128,000, inclusive of $69,000 lost by the Great Fire of the 25/26th December, nearly the whole of which amount was paid after the annexed accounts were closed.

The Balance at Credit on the 31st December was $101,947.11, and adding the amount brought forward from 1877 this is increased to $164,354.46, out of which the Directors propose to pay the usual Dividend of $12 per Share.

Directors.—Messrs. Ryrie and Forbes retire from the Board in accordance with the Articles of Association, and offer themselves for re-election.
Mr. A. Lind having left the Colony, Mr. A. Molver has been elected to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation, and this appointment will require confirmation.

Auditors.—Mr. O. Morland Kerr being absent the Board elected Mr. D. A. J. Crombie to act as Auditor. This gentleman and Mr. James H. Cox offer themselves for re-election.

HENRY LOWCOCK, Chairman.

HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA DOCK COMPANY, LIMITED.

The following Report of the Board of Directors will be presented to the ordinary yearly meeting of shareholders, to be held at the offices of the Company, Club Chambers, Hongkong, on Monday next, at 3 p.m.:—

To the shareholders of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, Limited.
Gentlemen,—The directors have now to submit to you their Report with a Statement of accounts for the half year ending 31st December last.

In accordance with the resolution passed at the last meeting, the sum of $30,022.11 has been written off from the suspense account.
The total receipts for the half year amount to $173,868.88, and the net profit to..... $20,398.60 to which has to be added the balance brought forward from last account..... 2,002.55

making available..... $22,401.15
From which has to be deducted:—
Bonus to contributing shareholders..... 2,000.00
Directors' fees..... 2,500.00
Auditors' fees..... 250.00

Leaving for appropriation..... $17,651.15

The directors recommend that a dividend of 1 per cent. for the half year, amounting to $15,000, be paid to the shareholders, and the balance $2,651.15 carried forward to new account.

Directors.—By clause 80 of the Company's Articles of Association, Messrs. H. Hoppus and A. Molver, retire by rotation, but offer themselves for re-election.
Auditors.—Messrs. J. Robinson and T. G. Linstead, the retiring auditors, are recommended by the Board for re-election.
W. KESWICK, Chairman.

THE HONGKONG FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

REPORT.

The General Managers have now to place before the Shareholders the Tenth Annual Report of this Company.

The accounts for the Year 1877 show a Net Profit of $281,800, which in accordance with the Articles of Association will be divided as follows:—

20 per cent. to Reserve Fund..... $ 69,540.00
20 per cent. Bonus to Contributing Shareholders..... $ 46,360.00
60 per cent. Dividend to Shareholders generally..... $115,900.00

$281,800.00
The Reserve Fund is thus increased to $701,842.00 through profits reserved to 31st December, 1877, whilst a Dividend of $67.95 per share (equal to 28.97 on the paid-up Capital) and a Bonus of 24.24 per cent. on Contributions of Shareholders are paid from the earnings to the same date.

The Year 1878 shows improvement both in Premium and Interest collected, and by the working account a sum of $271,928.55 is shown at credit, to which has to be added $28,628.50 profit on the investment in Bonds of the Chinese Imperial Loans 1874 and 1877, realized since the accounts were published were closed. The losses however, by the disastrous Fire in Hongkong on Christmas night and by a Fire at Shanghai on 8th January have in part to be deducted from the sums named, and as these losses amount to about $158,000 the Net Balance is reduced to about $147,000.

The Consulting Committee, Messrs. W. Helmers, A. P. McEwan, C. D. Bottomley, T. Jackson and J. H. dos Remedios, offer themselves for re-election.

The Auditors, Messrs. Henry Smith and A. Coxon, also offer themselves for re-election.

JARVIS, MATHESON & CO.,
General Managers.

Canton.

17th February, 1879.

The Opium-dealing monopolists have come to grief to-day at the hands of the populace; the residence of the surviving son (the 7th) of the former chief of the Co-Hong Houqua, who is a leading member of the associated farmers of the new scheme for the conduct of the licensing system, having been invaded by a tumultuous and menacing assemblage, necessitating the calling out of the repressive forces under the Kwang-chow-foo (Er-fect), the Namhoi Magistrate, and some of the Military Mandarins also; and whilst this serious controversy is pending, fraught as it is with peril of life and property, we may say that it is by a strange irony in ethics that the sole redeeming feature of the system constitutes the grievance alleged for its abolition that is to say, the restriction of licenses to shops paying one hundred taels or more, whose effect is to lessen the consumption by the poorer classes of people; who are now arrayed in a violent attitude against Mr. Houqua, hounded on by the press and dispirited of the shopkeepers, who have insidiously inflamed the hatred of the poor generally by the false accusation that Houqua is also answerable for the extra impost upon firewood. From the first we considered that the scheme looked the complement required to vindicate the right of the commitment of the name of "Houqua" to its execution in the face of the people of Canton; amongst whom happily, lingers the tradition of the total abstinence of its distinguished Chief from contact with the Drug;—The complement, namely, that it be stipulated that all gains from the monopoly thus instituted be devoted to the founding and maintenance of a Charity providing reformatory Homes for the victims of the Drug and their impoverished families. Without this it has the bait and bone of all native Opium dealing.

HONGKONG RACES, 1879.

Brilliant weather, perhaps a trifle too hot, favoured the Races to-day. The attendance was about as large as that of yesterday, His Excellency the Governor, Mrs. Hennessy, and the other leading residents and visitors again patronising the Grand Stand. Although probably no other part of the world can rival Hongkong in regard to the cosmopolitan character of its race gatherings, yet it must be admitted that, apart from the natural picturesqueness of the Happy Valley, the motley assemblage that gathers in the centre of our Race Course on such occasions as these is remarkable neither for beauty or even variety. The predominating colour is blue in blue umbrellas and gowns, interspersed with the particularly dirty canvas awnings, and a few white and red uniforms.

Another capital selection of popular tunes was played by the Band of the 74th Regiment in the course of the afternoon. As yesterday the ground was well kept by the Police, and a force of men from the Regiment. We hear it whispered that some of our blue-coated guardians of peace and order would have offered no objection had the custom, in practice a year or two ago, of providing something in the way of refreshment, been observed at this Meeting. Doubtless the same may be said for the soldiers on duty.

The favourites fared better to-day than yesterday on the whole, but they fell woefully behind again in the last few races. In the second race for the German Cup Midlander rather astonished the knowing ones by leading some of the "cracks" for nearly two miles, and then securing a good second place. Leegrin, the horse of which so much was expected, has been everywhere but in the winning places; in fact, it seemed to require a considerable application of the whip on more than one occasion to keep him in the race at all.

SECOND DAY.

TUESDAY, 18TH FEBRUARY, 1879.

Stewards: His Excellency John Pope Hennessy, C.M.G.; His Excellency Major-General Donovon; Commodore Watson, R.N.; Colonel Jago, H.M. 74th Highlanders; H. B. Gibb, Esq.; The Hon. W. Keswick; The Hon. P. Ryrie; A. Coxon, Esq.; H. Hoppus, Esq.; W. H. Forbes, Esq.; and J. H. Scott, Esq. Hon. Clerk of the Course: M. W. Saunders, Lieut., R.A.

Four ponies came out for the first race to-day, all of whom were more or less in high favor, viz: Black Moire, Shere Abbas, Expectation, and Bismarck. They got away in good order, Bismarck making the running for a short distance. Passing the Rock Expectation got in front, and Bismarck dropped into third place. Turning into the Straight Bismarck was hard pressed, and looked like giving a good account of himself, but Expectation was not to be caught napping and maintained his advantage, winning a very good race by two lengths; Black Moire being second.

This race was regarded as a foregone conclusion as soon as it was ascertained that only two ponies would compete, viz: Strathavon and Dibs, the race having been considered as the former's all along. Dibs took the lead and maintained it until the starting post was reached the second time. The horses had, however, been running closely together up to this point, but whether this was at the pleasure of Strathavon's rider or not is a secret only known to the initiated. On approaching the Reach on the second occasion Strathavon drew ahead, and the race then became his to a certainty. The race was ultimately won easily by the favourite.

There were five starters for the German Cup, Scamp, Reichefreherr, Midlander, Surcingle and Isgrin. The race was considered a dead certainty for Reichefreherr owing to the qualities he had displayed in the two-mile spin for the Foochow Cup. Falling Nickels mount Surcingle was looked upon as the fortunate moke. Heavy odds were laid on Reichefreherr. A good start was effected, Midlander going off with the lead, evidently making the running for his stable companion. Surcingle was second and Scamp last. This order was maintained pretty well until the Rock was passed the first time, when Surcingle showed signs of flagging, and passing the stand Isgrin had crept into second place. Midlander still maintaining a good lead. The others were pretty well together, Scamp as before bringing up the rear. Away they go for the final spin round, and now the qualities of the rivals are to be put to the test. A commotion was observable on passing the Bridge, and Reichefreherr crept to the front after the leader, a murmur of approval or disappointment being heard around the Course. The Rock was being approached; now comes the tug of war. Up the slight incline they go, the jockeys urging on their three chargers; the top reached and the rest of the road is comparatively easy down the slope; in the rush Nickels has collared the leader, and side by side Mr. Paul's two plucky staunch little animals. Midlander appears to still press forward, but Reichefreherr is to win and comes into the Straight leading, winning easily by three or four lengths, his stable companion getting second place; with Scamp, whose powers had been restrained too long, third.

The mokes got away well together, Cyclop going off with the lead, which he maintained until reaching the Bridge, when Red Robin came forward and showed the way past the Rock the last time; Isgrin trying hard to come up on him. On the run to the village Red Robin increased his lead easily, and came up the Straight forward and deputed second place with Illo. The favorite came in a good last.

Four ponies faced the starter for the Parsee Cup, Black Pearl, Ranger, Expectation and Bismarck. They got off well together, betting being 2 to 1 on Black Pearl. Bismarck got away with the lead, but by the time the Rock was reached Expectation had headed the leader and showed the way to the Village. Here a struggle ensued, and Black Pearl, who had been creeping forward all the way from the Rock, contested for the "leadership." The result appeared somewhat doubtful until about thirty yards from the winning post, but here Black Pearl was put on his mettle, and won in gallant style amid the cheers of all on and around the Stand.

This race brought out the largest field of the meeting up to this point; eight ponies facing the Starter—Bad Spec, Dreadnought, Cunehaw, Black Diamond, Heather Bell, Wheel of Fortune, Bayan, and Bueophalus. Heather Bell went off with the lead, and passing the Stand had a good three or four lengths advantage, but nearing the Bridge the usual alteration of places was effected. As the Rock was neared Hunt's mount (Heather Bell) fell into the aquad, and a contest then took place between Black Diamond, Cunehaw and Bayan for the lead. Passing the village Black Diamond had the rails, going hard; whilst Bayan and Cunehaw, who had a slight lead, rode neck and neck. The closeness of the race caused a deal of excitement, all three of the foremost ponies being held in high esteem. Passing the stables Bayan put on a spurt and left his adversaries several lengths behind, the others tailing off. Cunehaw being a fair second.

Seven ponies came to the post for the mile and a half race—Cyclop, Red Robin, Egmont, Girths, Illo, Isgrin, and Bay. Rum, Egmont and Girths started as favorites, as much as 5 to 1 being offered on Egmont. The mokes got away well together, Cyclop going off with the lead, which he maintained until reaching the Bridge, when Red Robin came forward and showed the way past the Rock the last time; Isgrin trying hard to come up on him. On the run to the village Red Robin increased his lead easily, and came up the Straight forward and deputed second place with Illo. The favorite came in a good last.
